Rome, Sept. 4. N. S.

THE Pope continues extream ill, Laſt week he ſent for the Cardinals of the Palace, and gave the Biſhoprick of Viterbo to Cardinal Sancta Croce, and that of Oſimo to Signior Gozadini, his Chamberlain, and made Cardinal Cenci Vice-Legate of Bologna. Cardinal Albano endeavoured to perſwade him to declare the two Cardinals he reſerved in Petto at the laſt Promotion, but he has not yet thought fit to do it. All the French Servants of Cardinal de Bouillon's have left him ſince his Diſgrace, purſuant to the Moſt Chriſtian King's Order, except only his Steward; But ſeveral of the Cardinals have offered him their Services, and particularly Cardinal Nigroni has deſired him to make uſe of his Palace in this City. The Cardinals Homodei and Noris are both very much indiſpoſed; and we hear Cardinal Durazzo is very ill at Florence. The Letters from Naples ſay, the Viceroy of that Kingdom has begun to put in execution the King of Spain's late Order, for ſuppreſſing divers Penſions and Supernumerary Offices.

Genoua, Sept. 5. The Squadron of French Galleys, commanded by the Chevalier de Noailles, are ſtill in this Port, expecting a Supply of Proviſions from Marſeilles, and when they have received it, they will proceed on their Voyage to Civita-Vecchia. The Spaniſh Envoy reſiding here has received Orders from Madrid, to go with the like Character to the Court of Savoy. The laſt Advices from Algiers ſay, the Affairs of that Government are in great Diſorder, the Bey of Tunis on one ſide, and the King of Morocco on the other, being at War with them; 'Tis ſaid, the Algerines have lately gained a Victory over the Army of Morocco, but they have not the ſame Succeſs againſt the Tuniſeens, who have totally routed their Forces, and laid Siege to Conſtantina and Bonna, two of the moſt conſiderable Places in the Kingdom of Algiers.

Venice, Sept. 10. The Senate has given Orders, That the Magazines of their Frontier Places in Terra firma be filled with Ammunition and Proviſions, and their Fortifications kept in good Repair. Don Juan Carlos Bacan is arrived here with the Character of Ambaſſador from Spain. Signior Giovanni Franciſco Moroſini, who was appointed to go with the Character of Ambaſſador from this Republick to the Imperial Court in the room of Signior Franciſco Loredano, who is recalled, has excuſed himſelf from this Employment, and paid the uſual Fine, and the Senate will ſoon proceed to a new Choice. Signior Mocenigo, who is named to go in the Quality of Ambaſſador from this State to England, expects the Senate's laſt Orders to proceed on his Journey. The Convoy that is preparing here is almoſt ready, and will ſail in few days with a conſiderable quantity of Proviſions and Ammunition, and Recruits for the Venetian Forces in the Levant. The Letters from thence ſay, Captain-General Cornaro was come from Napoli di Romania to Coron in the Morea, and would ſhortly return to Venice. The Captain-Baſſa Mezzomorto was ſailed towards the Iſle of Scio with 12 Men of War and 20 Gallies, in order to raiſe the uſual Tribute paid to the Grand Signior by the Iſlands in the Archipelago that are under his Dominion. The Captain-Baſſa has deſired Leave of the Grand Signior to reſign his Employment, in Conſideration of his very great Age, which 'tis believed will be granted him at his Return to Conſtantinople.

From the King of Poland*'s Camp before* Riga, Sept. 4. We have at length received our heavy Cannon and Mortars, and are at work in placing them upon the Batteries, in order to the Bombarding of Riga. Laſt night a Detachment of our Forces took a Poſt near the Town, and the Beſieged made a Sally to regain it, but were beaten back by a Party of 500 Men who were ſent to ſupport the Saxons. Several Parties have been ſent out into the Country, who have brought back with them a conſiderable Booty. We have Advice that Count Welling, with the Swediſh Forces under his Command, has Intrenched himſelf in an advantagious Poſt near Pernau, where he expects farther Reinforcements from Finland.

Copenhagen, Sept. 11. N. S. The Swediſh Fleet which lay near the Iſland of Wien, weighed Anchor the 8th Inſtant, and paſſing before the Daniſh Fleet which continues in our Road, ſailed with a fair Wind towards Carelſcroone, where we ſuppoſe they may be arrived by this time; And the next day the Engliſh and Dutch Squadrons paſſed thro' the Sound, in order to their return home. Count Guldenlew, Admiral-General of this Kingdom, is dangerouſly ill. The Daniſh Forces that were in Holſtein, are marching to their Quarters. Our Advices from Schonen ſay, the King of Sweden is gone to Chriſtianſtad, to review his Forces which are to be ſent to Livonia.

Vienna, Sept. 8. The Emperor and Empreſs, with the Elector and Electoreſs Palatine, and Prince Charles of Newbourg, came the 19th Inſtant from Newſtad to the Palace at Favorita near this City, where the King and Queen of the Romans arrived the 4th. The day following their Electoral Highneſſes received a Viſit from the Arch-Duke Charles and the Arch-Dutcheſſes, who returned in the evening to Eberſdorf. The King of the Romans intends to give a ſplendid Entertainment to morrow in his Palace at Shonborne to the Emperor and Empreſs, and to their Electoral Highneſſes who in 4 or 5 days will leave this Place and return to Daſſelaorp; And about the ſame time the Imperial Court will remove to Eberſdorf. A Match is concluded between Prince Charles of Newbourg, and the Daughter of Prince Lubomirsky, Great Marſhal of the Crown of Poland. Count Straatman, who is gone with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor to the King of Poland, has Orders to uſe his Endeavours to accommodate the Differences between the King of Sweden and that Prince. Cardinal Lamberg is ſhortly expected here from his Biſhoprick of Paſſau, to receive the Cap from the Emperor's Hands. The Council of War meet frequently to conſider of the State of the Imperial Forces, and expect the return of Prince Eugene of Savoy, who is gone to review the Troops quartered in Hungary, that upon his Report they may give the neceſſary Directions for recruiting them, and remounting the Cavalry. Letters from Temeſwaer ſay, the Imperial and Turkiſh Commiſſioners were ſhortly expected there from Croatia to continue their Conferences for regulating the Limits, and that the States of the Principality of Tranſilvania, which were aſſembled at Alba Julia, ſeparated on the 20th paſt, but would meet again on the 8th Inſtant. The laſt Advices from Conſtantinople bring a Confirmation, that the Treaty for Prolongation of the Truce between the Czar of Muſcovy and the Grand Signior is concluded, by which is left to the Czar the Poſſeſſion of Azof, and all the other Places taken from the Turks on the Nieper. Theſe Letters add, that the Muſcovite Envoy inſiſted very much on a Free Trade and Navigation on the Black Sea, but could not obtain it.

Hamburgh, Sept. 14. Commiſſioners from the King of Denmark and the Duke of Holſtein-Gottorp are ſhortly to meet in this City, in purſuance of what is ſtipulated in the 11th Article of the Treaty of Travendhall, to adjuſt ſeveral Matters which were left undetermined by the ſaid Treaty. Count Guldenſterne, the Swediſh General, is gone from this Place to Staden to review part of the Swediſh Forces that were in Holſtein, who have repaſſed the Elbe at Blankeneſs, and are marched to the Duchy of Bremen. The reſt of the Swediſh Troops are marching to Pomeren, and there is a diſcourſe that they intend to make an Irruption into the Electorate of Saxony, if the Elector of Brandenburgh can be prevailed with to allow them Paſſage through his Territories. The Duke of Holſtein is gone to Tonningen; 'tis ſaid he intends ſhortly to return to Stockholm. The Count de Chamilly, Ambaſſador from France, will leave this Place in a day or two, and return to Copenhagen. The laſt Advices from Livonia give an Account, that the Saxon Forces before Riga meet with ſo many Difficulties, that 'tis believed they will be forced to quit their Deſign againſt the Town of Riga.
